

Third Party Agreement

The Recipient, (third party name here -- e.g., CA state agency, academic entity, utility, or consulting firm doing business with the California Energy Commission, or private individual), agrees that all McGraw-Hill Construction Dodge information released to it by the California Energy Commission, pursuant to McGraw-Hill Construction's review and approval of Recipient's request, will be used by Recipient exclusively for the sole purpose stated in the request.

The Recipient agrees to credit McGraw-Hill Construction Dodge as the source of information presented in text, graphs or tables, or in any other format, hardcopy or electronic.

This information is distributed on a confidential basis by McGraw-Hill Construction. All McGraw-Hill Construction Dodge data remains the exclusively owned property of McGraw-Hill Construction. By acceptance of the information the Recipient agrees to protect the proprietary nature of the McGraw-Hill Construction Dodge information presented herein. All disclaimers and limitations of liability apply. Any further use of the information without the prior written approval of McGraw-Hill Construction is prohibited. McGraw-Hill Construction makes no warranties as to the accuracy or completeness of the data and shall have no liability for any errors or omissions therein.

Recipient Signature

Date

Recipient Name (print)

