AGENDA ITEM SUBJECT AND DESCRIPTION – This is the description that will appear on the agenda)

Fuels and Transportation Division staff is requesting the Platt's cTrack subscription for marine vessel tracking and historical data. Platt's cTrack is a web-based service that will enable Energy Commission staff to verify tanker activities in California ports and marine terminals including real-time marine tanker locations and Automated Identification System (AIS) ship tracking. Staff will use Platt's cTrack to analyze historical marine vessel loadings and discharges by individual refinery location, track movements on an interactive map, receive alerts of marine vessel arrivals, drill-down for detailed information about upcoming marine tanker activities, support demurrage analysis, support marine vessel transportation cost analysis, market research and incident responses.

The subscription agreement with Platts's cTrack is for one year 11/15/2012 – 11/14/2013 at $16,995 (ERPA funded).
