_____)	April 13, 2016

On March 21, 2016, AltaGas Pomona Energy, Inc. filed a Small Power Plant Exemption (SPPE) application for the Pomona Repower Project, a nominal 100 MW (net), natural gas-fired, simple-cycle power plant, which will replace the existing 44.5 MW San Gabriel Cogeneration Facility, for an increased nominal net output of 55.5 MW. Pursuant to Public Resources Code section 25211 and California Code of Regulations, title 20, section 1204, the Energy Commission hereby establishes the Pomona Repower Project Siting Committee to preside over SPPE proceedings and any other proceedings arising from the application.

The Pomona Repower Project Siting Committee shall have the authority and duties necessary to conduct this proceeding as set forth in Energy Commission regulations, including the authority of a presiding member to manage the proceeding in accordance with California Code of Regulations, title 20, section 1203.

Unless otherwise ordered by the Commission, this Committee will dissolve 35 days after final action in this proceeding.
