Section 2.

The Hewlett Foundation is a private foundation dedicated to helping solve social and environmental problems. Its Environmental Program makes grants to slow global climate change by reducing greenhouse gas emissions. The Energy Foundation is a foundation focusing on philanthropy to help the world meet its energy challenges. Stanford University is a research institution and is participating in the implementation of the California-Mexico Energy Memorandum of Understanding.

Section 4.

Comment: Hewlett was the source of the funding and the Energy Foundation and Stanford University were intermediaries for the funds. The purpose of this amendment is to accurately reflect the final payment amounts as well as the source and intermediaries used.
