The "Radioactive Materials Transportation Routing Study - Designation of Routes for the Through Transportation of Highway Route Controlled Quantity Shipments of Radioactive Materials" is available for public review at each California Highway Patrol Division Office, and the California Highway Patrol Hazardous Materials Section, 444 North Third Street, Suite 310, Sacramento, CA.

QUESTIONS

Any questions concerning the contents of the proposed regulations should be directed to Sergeant Harry Kallabis or Officer Kevin Livingston, California Highway Patrol, Hazardous Material Section, at (916) 327-3310.

ADOPTION OF PROPOSED REGULATIONS

After consideration of public comments, the California Highway Patrol may adopt the proposal substantially as set forth without further notice. If the proposal is modified prior to adoption and the change is not solely grammatical or nonsubstantive in nature, the full text of the resulting regulation, with the changes clearly indicated, will be made available to the public for at least 15 days prior to the date of adoption.

FISCAL IMPACT

The California Highway Patrol has determined that this proposed regulatory action: (1) will have no affect on housing costs; (2) will not impose any new mandate upon local agencies or school districts; (3) involves no increased nondiscretionary or reimbursable costs or savings to any local agency, school district, state agency or federal funding to the State; (4) will not have an adverse economic impact on ~~small~~ business; and (5) will not result in any significant cost to private persons or entities.

Including the ability of California businesses to compete with businesses in other states.

ALTERNATIVES

The following statement is required pursuant to Government Code Section 11346.5(a)(7): "The California Highway Patrol must determine that no alternative considered by the California Highway Patrol would be more effective and less burdensome to affected private persons than the proposed action."

The adoption of the proposed amendments to this regulation will neither create nor eliminate jobs in the state of California nor result in the elimination of existing businesses or create or expand businesses in the State of California.
