

Steve Ponder

- Executive Director
 - 35 years of geothermal project and development experience
- Geothermal Resources Council (GRC)
 - With more than 1,300 members, including over 100 companies in over 40 countries, the GRC is the primary professional educational association for the international geothermal community.

www.geothermal.org

Geothermal Resources Council

Advancing geothermal development through education, research, and outreach

- The Geothermal Resources Council (GRC) is a tax-exempt, non-profit, educational association 501(c)(3). Formed in 1970, the GRC was incorporated in California in 1981.
- The GRC serves as a focal point for continuing professional development for its members through its outreach, information transfer and education services.

40th GRC Annual Meeting
& GEA Geothermal Energy Expo

Sacramento, CA • USA
October 23-26, 2016

