Re: Application for Certification for the Carlsbad Energy Center Project
Docket No. 07-AFC-6

Dear Mr. Monasmith:

The neighborhood of Terramar supports the South Carlsbad Redevelopment Agency's Petition to intervene. It is surprising that the California Energy Commission would consider the SCRA's petition to be "redundant" as the SCRA is a different legal entity from the City of Carlsbad with a separate, distinct purpose.

Should Terramar, a neighborhood in Carlsbad, be represented by the City of Carlsbad instead of a separate intervener?

Should Power of Vision, a community based group including many residents of Carlsbad, be represented by the City of Carlsbad instead of a separate intervener?

No, the CEC has seen the need for each to intervene separately because we each bring something very important and distinct to the table.

The SCRA is a different legal entity from the City of Carlsbad and since the CECP is located in a redevelopment area with different rules and standards, the SCRA will bring something very important and critical to the proceedings.

Please reconsider your recommendation.

Sincerely,

Kerry Siekmann
