P3a. Description (Describe resource and its major elements. Include design, materials, condition, alterations, size, setting, and boundaries)

The structure is a residential, multi-family dwelling with no unique features and is in the vernacular to the region. The roof is moderately pitched and end gabled on both dwellings. The roof material consists of asphalt/composite. An "eyebrow" is featured in the medial section of the roof at the rear of the dwelling located at 3240 Randolph Street. The roof is of the overhanging style over the front porch, with moderate slope on the primary dwelling located at 6204 Hood Ave. Windows are non-descript and barred. The exterior is rough stucco over wood. The structure is in excellent condition and has received renovation.

The setting is small scale single- and multi-family residential. The multi-family residence fronts on both Randolph Street and Hood Ave., and is surrounded by other residential structures. The Union Pacific Railroad right-of-way runs parallel to Randolph Street, above-grade, immediately across from the residences.
