

Section 141.0 - Additions, Alterations, and Repairs to Existing Buildings...

§141.0(b)2.I For each enclosed space, alterations to existing indoor lighting shall meet the f

Luminaire Classification and Power shall be determined in accordance with

EXCEPTION to Section 141.0(b)2ii: For only a Lighting System Alteration in a accordance with Section 141.0(b)2liii, an existing incandescent, fluorescent, number of, or type of light source(s), provided all of the following condition

- i.
 - a. The luminaire has been previously used and is in an existing inst;
 - b. The modified luminaire is listed with the different number or typ
 - c. The different light source(s) is not an LED lamp, integrated or no
 - d. The modified luminaire does not contain:
 - 1. Unused fluorescent or HID ballast(s); or
 - 2. Unused HID or fluorescent lamp sockets; or
 - 3. Sockets used only for lamp support; or
 - 4. Screw sockets of any kind or for any purpose; and
 - e. The wattage of the modified luminaire shall be published in the

ii. Lighting System alterations shall meet the applicable requirements in TABLE (10% - threshold)

- a. Lighting System Alterations include alterations where an existing from the circuit, removed and reinstalled, wheter in the same lo

EXCEPTION 2 to ii: Portable luminaires, luminaires affixed to movable partic

EXCEPTION 1 to ii: Alterations that qualify as a Luminaire Modification-in-PI