RE: Revised and Final Draft Tribal Consultation Policy

Dear Tribal Leader,

Attached for your review is a Final Draft California Energy Commission Tribal Consultation Policy. We appreciate all of the tribes that took the time to provide written comment, attend our South and North meetings, or held substantive conversations with staff concerning draft policy language. The attached revised and Final Draft policy has improved as a result of tribal input.

We anticipate bringing the Final Draft Tribal Consultation policy before a business meeting of the Commission for review and consideration for adoption on December 10, 2014. Energy Commission staff is preparing the Final Draft Tribal Consultation Policy for a final comment period before the Commission reviews and considers adoption. Please provide final comments on or before December 3, 2014.

You can also find an electronic copy of the Final Draft Tribal Consultation Policy on the Energy Commission website at <http://www.energy.ca.gov/tribal/>

Should you have any questions concerning the contents of this letter or have comments on the attached policy, please do not hesitate to call or email Thomas Gates at, 916 654-5008, or thomas.gates@energy.ca.gov.

Sincerely,

Roger E. Johnson
Deputy Director
Siting, Transmission
and Environmental Protection Division
