Section 2:

EUCI is an accredited corporation that designs focused conferences and training courses for practicing professionals in the energy field as well as other industries. Their mission is to move the industry forward through information exchange between forward-thinking peers from industry, agencies and the public. They work to provide an objective, independent, and diverse perspective on new and emerging practices from across the various fields, and keep professionals up-to-date and equipped to do their best work through learning the industry's best practices, current trends, and innovative solutions.

Section 3.2:

EUCI asked the California Energy Commission; Boulder County, Colorado; the Northwest Power and Conservation Council, and other industry stakeholder staff to provide presentations on energy issues related to the legal cannabis industry. Energy Commission staff will provide a presentation on energy regulations, equipment standards, and building codes applicable to the cannabis industry. In addition to a speaker role, Energy Commission staff will be on the closing panel discussion. Airfare and lodging for the speakers is paid directly by the conference organizer, EUCI.
