California Form 801 Attachment
Payment to Agency Report

Robert B. Weisenmiller, Chair
2018 Global Sustainability Summit
Shanghai, China
May 16, 2018

Section 2: Donor

The donor is the global consulting firm, McKinsey & Company. McKinsey hosted the 2018 Global Sustainability Summit and invited Chair Weisenmiller to provide remarks related to California's global leadership in sustainability and energy.

Section 3.2: Payment Description

By attending the 2018 Global Sustainability Summit, Chair Weisenmiller helped advance the California-China Clean Technology Partnership (CCCTP), which was established by Governor Brown in June 2017. Additionally, Chair Weisenmiller was able to provide other national and subnational jurisdictions with information regarding California's effective clean energy and environmental policy development and implementation. Finally, through continued engagement with China, there are significant lessons for California to learn from technological and policy advancements in China that can help the state meet its ambitious climate goals.
