Commissioner Andrew McAllister
Madrid, Spain
December 6-13, 2019

Georgetown Climate Center

The Georgetown Climate Center (GCC) is a nonpartisan group based out of the Georgetown University Law Center. GCC works to inform the federal dialogue on climate mitigation and adaptation by sharing lessons learned from leading states and communities. Additionally, GCC also works with states on developing innovative policies and analyzing the provisions of federal policy relevant to state and local government. GCC is funded by numerous groups, including the Rockefeller Brothers Fund, the MacArthur Foundation, and the Energy Foundation.

United Nations Climate Change Conference – Conference of the Parties (COP) 25

Commissioner McAllister has been invited to attend the Conference of the Parties (COP) 25, which is the United Nations' yearly conference on climate change. As the foremost international meeting of national and subnational jurisdictions, COP provides an opportunity to exchange ideas and assess progress in mitigating climate change. This year's conference will focus on outstanding issues with the Paris Climate Agreement and equity topics raised by the World Health Organization related to climate change and human health. Commissioner McAllister is one of California's leading experts on building decarbonization and will play an essential role in sharing the state's recent developments in energy policies and building energy efficiency codes.
