

Item 12: Olivine, Inc. – DSGS Administration Support

May 8, 2024, Business Meeting

Ashley Emery, Branch Manager
Reliability, Renewable Energy & Decarbonization Incentives (RREDI) Division
Reliability Reserve Incentives Branch

Benefits to Californians

- Support grid reliability by enhancing load capacity during extreme events
- Increase visibility into resource capacity
- Prioritize dispatch of clean resources first

DSGS Development Roadmap

Streamline & Strengthen Program with Third-Party Administration Support

Olivine, Inc.

- Uniquely experienced in successfully implementing emergency load reduction programs

Services

- Program enrollment and eligibility validation
- Communication and reporting to participants and partners
- Monitoring and validating performance

Term

- Four-year term, with an option to extend for a fifth year

Budget

- Not to exceed $22,250,000

Recommendation

---

- Approve contract with Olivine, Inc., not to exceed $22,250,000
- Adopt staff's determination that action is exempt from CEQA