

Item 5: DACAG Appointments

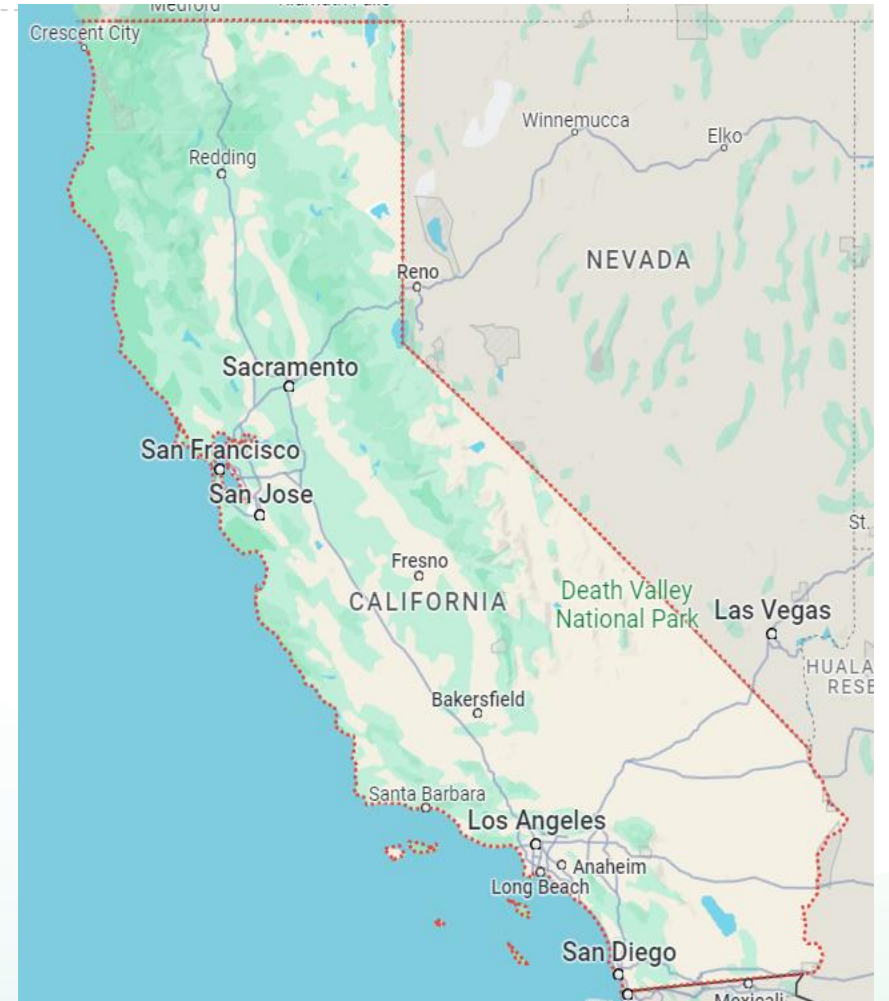

May 8, 2024 Business Meeting

Mona Badie, Public Advisor
Office of the Public Advisor, Energy Equity, and Tribal Affairs

DACAG Overview

- 11 Members from or representing disadvantaged communities throughout California
- Diverse backgrounds, expertise, and geographic locations
- Two members proposed for reappointment
- Three members proposed for new appointments

Source: Google

Benefits to Californians

- Inform CEC policies and programs from the disadvantaged community perspective
- Advance state equity and environmental justice goals

CEC-CPUC Disadvantaged Communities Advisory Group

Román Partida-López **

DACAG Chair
The Greenlining Institute
April 1, 2021 - March 31, 2025

Julia Mary Popolizio Hatton *

DACAG Secretary
Rising Sun Center for Opportunity
July 13, 2022 - March 31, 2024

Stephanie Chen ***

Marin Clean Energy
April 1, 2023 - March 31, 2025

Curtis Silvers **

Los Angeles Brotherhood Crusade
April 1, 2023 - March 31, 2025

Sahara D. Huazano *

Alianza Coachella Valley
April 1, 2023 - March 31, 2025

Fred L. Beihn **

Arrowhead Solutions
April 1, 2022 - March 31, 2024

Elena Krieger, PhD **

Physicians, Scientists, and
Engineers (PSE) for Healthy Energy
April 1, 2023 - March 31, 2025

Two Proposed Reappointments

Julia Hatton

- Based in San Francisco Bay Area
- President and CEO, Rising Sun Center for Opportunity
- Current DACAG Secretary

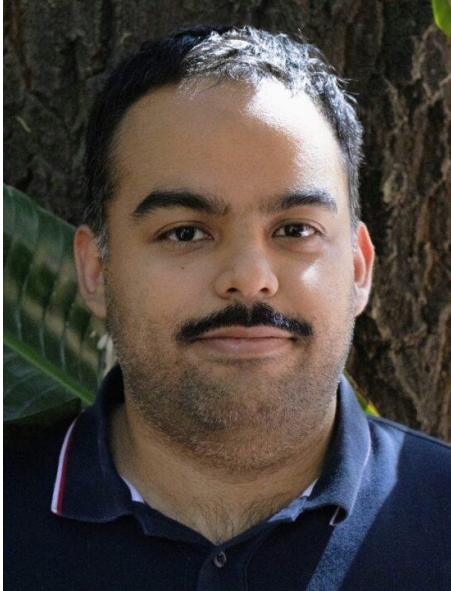

Fred Beihn

- Based in North Fork
- Founder, Arrowhead Solutions, LLC

Three New Appointments

Abimael Chavez-Hernandez

- Based in Modesto
- Equitable Development Analyst, West Modesto Community Collaborative

Chelsea Kirk

- Based in Los Angeles
- Director of Policy & Advocacy for Built Environment and Transit, Strategic Actions for a Just Economy

Sarah Sharpe

- Based in Fresno
- Deputy Executive Director, Central California Asthma Collaborative

Recommendation

Reappoint two members to the DACAG

- Fred Beihn
- Julia Hatton

Appoint three new members to the DACAG

- Abimael Chavez-Hernandez
- Chelsea Kirk
- Sarah Sharpe