

Item 8: California Energy, Power, & Innovation Collaborative.

January 21, 2026 Business Meeting

Taylor Nguyen
Fuels & Transportation Division
Zero Emissions Vehicles Acceleration Branch

Charge Yard Purpose

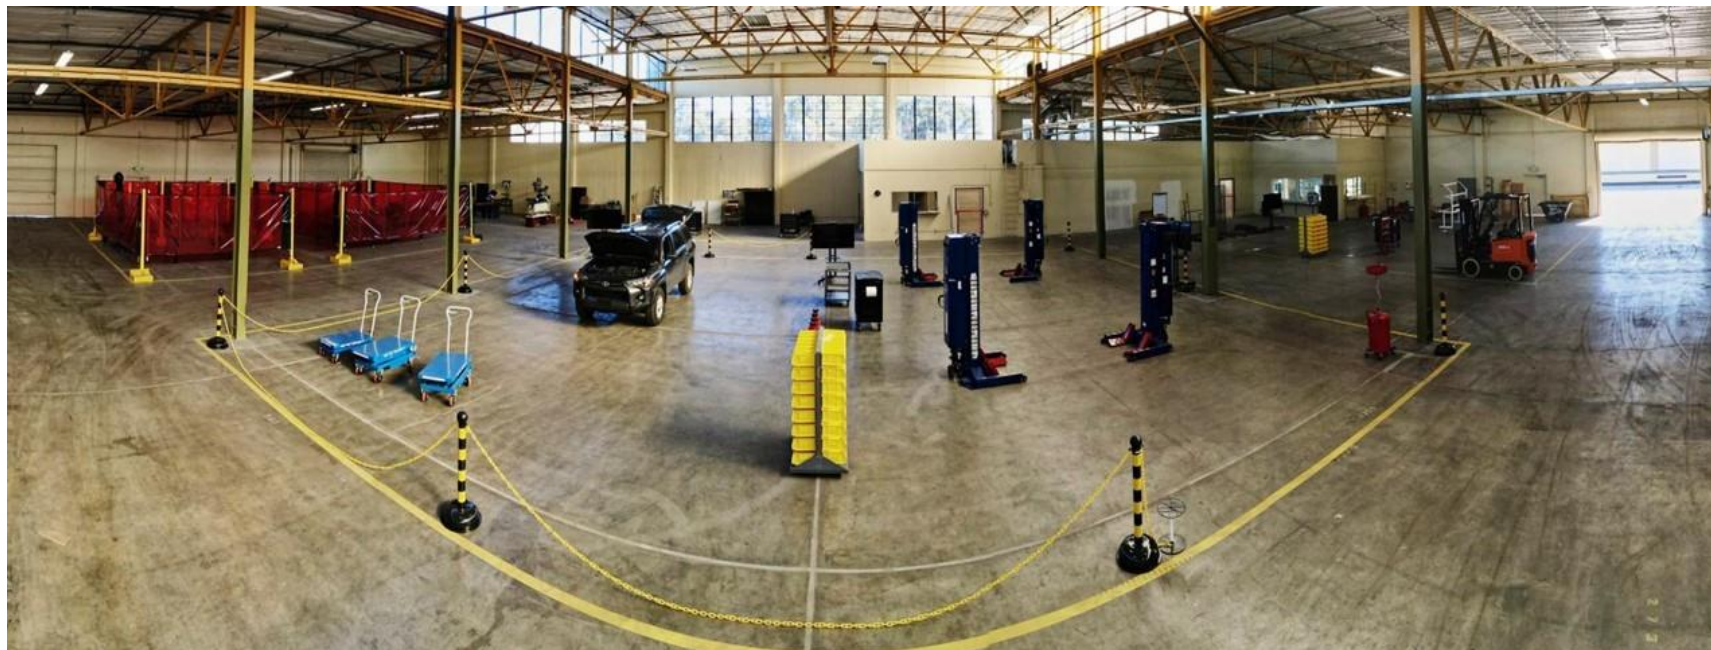

- Establish laboratory to conduct interoperability and electric vehicle charging equipment conformance testing
- Accelerate development of certification procedures
- Develop next-gen charging features
- Self-sustaining operations after 5 years

Source: American Center for Mobility

Proposed Agreement – Cal EPIC

Source: Cal EPIC

- Located in Sacramento's Depot Park
- Partnered with CharIN and Korea Electrotechnology Research Institute
- Will conduct end-to-end testing including bidirectional electric vehicle charging
- Will host large indoor and outdoor events

Benefit to Californians

Source: Charge Hub

Seamless and more reliable charging experience for drivers

Source: CharIN

Accelerates Plug and Charge capability

Source: CharIN

Convene industry and facilitate knowledge sharing

Staff Recommendation

- Approve grant agreement of $4,000,000
- Adopt staff's recommendation that this project is exempt from CEQA