On behalf of the Energy California Commission, Commissioner Skinner will participate in the Subnational Climate Action Convening at the Pocantico Center of the Rockefeller Brothers Fund in Tarrytown, New York. The convening will bring together a diverse group of U.S. subnational climate leaders to collaborate, exchange ideas, and strategize for the year ahead. This includes implementation of energy, climate, and transportation policies in states and cities nationwide. This work is more important than ever as subnational governments strive to meet climate goals in the face of climbing energy prices and without federal support.
