Agenda

The Committee will meet to 1) establish basic organizational bylaws, 2) receive briefings on relevant topics from staff, and 3) discuss topics on the use of fossil fuels in California.

Background

The California Energy Commission established a Petroleum Market Advisory Committee to better understand factors and conditions related to petroleum price fluctuations, the impacts on consumers, and policy options that may affect markets.

The committee consists of five petroleum fuels market experts appointed to the committee by the Energy Commission. These leading energy economists and experts will provide the Energy Commission and state regulators with independent advice and insights on issues affecting the market, from local policies to global events.

Public Comment

Oral comments: The Committee will accept oral comments during the meeting. Comments may be limited to five minutes per speaker. Any comments will become part of the public record in this proceeding.

Written comments: Written comments should be submitted to the Dockets Unit by 4:00 p.m. on December 23, 2014. Written comments will be also accepted at the meeting; however, the Energy Commission may not have time to review them before the conclusion of the meeting. For additional information, see Standing Order re: Proceedings and Confidentiality Procedural Requirements for Filing, Service, and Docketing Documents with the Energy Commission, available at www.energy.ca.gov/commission/chief_counsel/docket.html.

Additionally, written comments may be posted to the Energy Commission's website for the proceeding. Please note that your written and oral comments, attachments, and associated contact information (e.g. your address, phone, email, etc.) become part of the viewable public record. This information may become accessible via Google, Yahoo, and any other search engines.

The Energy Commission encourages comments by email. Please include your name and any organization name. Comments should be in a downloadable, searchable format such as Microsoft® Word (.doc) or Adobe® Acrobat® (.pdf). Please include the docket number 15-PMAC-1 and indicate Petroleum Market Advisory Committee in the subject line. Send comments to:
