Background

The California Energy Commission established a Petroleum Market Advisory Committee to better understand factors and conditions related to petroleum price fluctuations, impacts on consumers, and policy options that may affect markets.

The committee consists of five petroleum fuels market experts appointed by the Energy Commission. These leading energy economists and experts will provide the Energy Commission and state regulators with independent advice and insights on issues affecting the market, from local policies to global events.

Agenda

The Committee will meet to discuss issues relevant to the volatility of gasoline prices in California. The agenda will include:

- Possible approval of minutes from December 16, 2015 PMAC meeting.
- Review by Energy Commission staff of December 16, 2015 PMAC meeting.
- Briefing by Energy Commission staff on petroleum market news.
- Presentation on gasoline market issues in California that cause gasoline price spikes by Dolores Santos of Oil Price Information Service.
- Presentation on California's gasoline market interactions by Bob van der Valk of Bakken Oil Business Journal.
- Consumer Watchdog presentation on petroleum product movement.
- Presentation by Energy Commission staff on Energy Commission Emergency Response Plan for petroleum fuels.
- Discussion by PMAC members on policy alternatives for mitigating California gasoline price volatility.

Public Comment

Oral comments: The Committee will accept oral comments during the meeting. Comments may be limited to three minutes per speaker. Any comments will become part of the public record in this proceeding.

Written comments: Written comments should be submitted to the Dockets Unit by 4:00 p.m. on February 22, 2016. Written comments will be also accepted at the meeting; however, the Committee may not have time to review them before the conclusion of the meeting. For additional information, see Standing Order re: Proceedings and Confidentiality Applications - Procedural Requirements for Filing, Service, and Docketing Documents with the Energy Commission, available at www.energy.ca.gov/commission/chief_counsel/docket.html.

Additionally, written comments that you submit may be posted by the Energy Commission to the Energy Commission's website for the proceeding. Please note that your written and oral comments, attachments, and associated contact information (e.g., your address, phone, email, etc.) become part of the viewable public record. This information may become accessible via Google, Yahoo, and any other search engines.

The PMAC and the Energy Commission encourage comments by email. Please include your name and any organization name. Comments should be in a downloadable, searchable format such as Microsoft® Word (.doc) or Adobe® Acrobat® (.pdf). Please include the docket number 15-PMAC-1 and indicate Petroleum Market Advisory Committee in the subject line. Send comments to:
