Re: Offshore Wind Lease OCS-P 0564

Dear Mr. Brown and Custodian of Records:

This correspondence, including the enclosed administrative investigative subpoena, is sent in connection with an investigation by the California Energy Commission (CEC) into the premature relinquishment of the lease for offshore wind energy held by Golden State Wind LLC (Golden State Wind), Lease OCS-P 0564. The circumstances prompting this investigation are as follows.

On April 27, 2026, the U.S. Department of Interior announced¹ that it had entered into an agreement with Golden State Wind whereby the company will voluntarily abandon its lease to develop an offshore wind project up to 2 gigawatts (GW) in capacity off the Central California coast in exchange for receiving a $120 million payout and making an equal investment in fossil fuel projects and infrastructure outside the State of California.

The announcement states that “Golden State Wind has committed to voluntarily end its offshore wind lease” and that “[u]nder the terms of the agreement, Golden State Wind will be eligible to recover approximately $120 million in lease fees after an investment has been made of an equal amount in the development of U.S. oil and gas assets, energy infrastructure, and/or LNG projects along the Gulf Coast.” In addition, it states that “Golden State Wind has also decided not to pursue any new offshore wind projects in the United States.” Neither the agreement nor any additional information about it has been made publicly available.

Following Golden State Wind’s participation in the December 2022 U.S. Bureau of Ocean Energy Management (BOEM) competitive auction for offshore wind energy leases, the company was awarded Lease Area OCS-P 0564, comprised of approximately 80,418 acres in the Morro Bay Wind Energy Area off the Central

¹ <https://www.doi.gov/pressreleases/interior-announces-two-historic-agreements-promote-affordable-reliable-energy>

California coast, and entered into a lease with effective date of June 1, 2023. Golden State Wind was to construct wind turbine generators installed on floating platforms, mooring, and anchoring systems connecting them to the seabed, inter-array cables, floating offshore substation(s), offshore export and telecommunication cables, cable landfall(s), onshore export cables, offshore or onshore substation(s), and onshore interconnection cable(s) to the point(s) of interconnection to the onshore electric grid.

According to Golden State Wind's website (<https://goldenstatewind.com/>), the floating offshore wind project was "expected to generate up to 2 gigawatts (GW) of clean offshore wind energy" and "help California meet its 100% clean electricity by 2045 goal."

Golden State Wind's taxpayer-funded lease buyout deal announced last week undermines significant investments made by the State of California and other public entities in California to develop the transmission and port infrastructure necessary for offshore wind projects, which were made in reliance on commitments by Golden State Wind and other companies who hold leases to develop offshore wind projects off the coast of California, as well as by the federal government.

Those investments support the State's goal to develop up to 25 GW of offshore wind capacity by 2045 in order to accelerate the clean energy transition by providing a consistent, reliable source of clean electricity, support the State's greenhouse gas emission reduction goals, create local manufacturing jobs and drive economic development.

To date, California has invested more than $100 million in reliance on the commitments, which include, but are not limited to:

1. $42.75 million awarded through the Waterfront Facilities Improvement Program to five port projects to support the staging, integration, operations, and/or maintenance of offshore wind turbines.
2. $10.5 million awarded to the Humboldt Bay Harbor District to develop an offshore wind port facility to support staging, integration, operations, and maintenance of offshore wind turbines.
3. $42 million awarded to technology providers and national laboratories to develop innovative anchoring systems, mooring lines, floating substation designs, and environmental monitoring tools.
4. $3 million for offshore wind monitoring and ecosystem protection research and development at the Ocean Protection Council.
5. $1 million to develop the AB 525 Offshore Wind Energy Strategic Plan and its various technical sub-reports, the AB 3 Second Phase Port Readiness Study, and Offshore Wind Supply Chain Study.

6. $1 million to plan for transmission studies regarding interconnection and grid hosting capacity for offshore wind.
7. At least $2 million in staff and administrative costs to support the development and implementation of the above investments.

Golden State Wind's lease also includes bid credit commitments of more than $24 million for workforce training and supply chain (p. C-22 of the lease), and $6 million in Lease Use Area Community Benefits Agreements (p. C-27 of the lease), plus any applicable interest and penalties. The company's strategy for how to fulfill these funding commitments was included in its December 2022 lease auction bid package and indicates how they would have conferred direct benefits to California and other in-state entities and must be paid back if the company forfeits its lease.

In addition to its development of the State's offshore wind energy strategic plan pursuant to AB 525, the CEC has significant planning and investment responsibilities with regard to offshore wind, and Golden State Wind's lease buyout deal is relevant to several active CEC proceedings. These include AB 3 (Stats. 2024, ch. 314) – California Offshore Wind Advancement Act (Docket No. 25-AB-03), Proposition 4 Offshore Wind Ports Development Program (Docket No. 26-POPD-01), AB 209 (Stats. 2022, ch. 251) Offshore Wind Waterfront Facility Improvement Program (Docket No. 23-MISC-01), and AB 525 (Stats. 2022, ch. 231) Offshore Renewable Energy / Offshore Wind Strategic Plan (Docket No. 17-MISC-01).

The CEC has opened an investigation into the premature relinquishment of Lease OCS-P 0564, the circumstances surrounding it, and potential violations of law in connection with offshore wind lease buyouts. You are directed to review the enclosed administrative investigative subpoena issued by the CEC and the enclosed letter from the California Attorney General's Office.

Sincerely,

Drew Bohan

14 INSTRUCTIONS

15 1. Your response to the subpoena should include a declaration or affidavit. It should state
16 that a diligent search for all requested DOCUMENTS has been conducted and that the affiant or 17 declarant was in charge of the search or otherwise monitored and reviewed the search sufficiently 18 to be able to represent under oath that such a search was conducted. It should be signed under 19 oath by the person most knowledgeable about the DOCUMENTS and YOUR efforts to comply
20 with the subpoena. If different people are the most knowledgeable about portions of the search
21 (e.g., one person is most knowledgeable about DOCUMENTS contained in computer media and a
22 different person is most knowledgeable about DOCUMENTS contained on paper) each should sign
23 an affidavit or declaration identifying the category in the request for DOCUMENTS for which 24 that person is the most knowledgeable.

25 2. Unless otherwise indicated, for any ESI, produce the DOCUMENT in the original
26 electronic file format in which it was created (e.g., spreadsheets should be Excel files and word-
27 processed DOCUMENTS should be Word files), together with any instructions or other materials
28 necessary to use or interpret the data. Electronic mail messages must be provided even if only

1 available on backup or archive tapes or disks. Photographs should retain their original file
2 properties, including date the photograph was taken, who took the photograph produced, and the 3 latitude and longitude of the place, if any, depicted in the photograph. Computer media should be
4 accompanied by (a) an identification of the generally available software needed to open and view
5 the DOCUMENTS or (b) a copy of the software needed to open and view the DOCUMENT.

6 Note, however, that if a print-out from a computer DOCUMENT is a non-identical copy of the 7 electronic form in which it was created, both the electronic form in which the DOCUMENT was 8 created and the original print-out should be produced.

9 3. For each DOCUMENT contained in an audio or video medium, provide both the tape,
10 disk or other device from which the audio or video can be played and the transcript of the 11 DOCUMENT.

12 4. For all DOCUMENTS you do not produce in the original, as defined in Evidence Code
13 section 255, you may submit copies in lieu of original DOCUMENTS provided that such copies
14 are accompanied by an affidavit of an officer of GS WIND stating that the copies are true,
15 correct, and complete copies of the original DOCUMENTS. If there is in your possession,
16 custody or control no original, but only a copy or photographic record thereof, produce a true and 17 legible copy of each such DOCUMENT. The accompanying affidavit should state that the 18 DOCUMENT is only a copy or photographic record and not the original.

19 5. If a DOCUMENT is responsive to this subpoena and is in your control, but is not in 20 YOUR possession or custody, in addition to obtaining and producing the DOCUMENT, identify 21 the person who had possession or custody of the DOCUMENT, their telephone number and 22 current business and residence addresses.

23 6. If any DOCUMENT subpoenaed is no longer in your possession, custody, control or care,
24 provide a written statement identifying the DOCUMENT with specificity, stating whether it is 25 lost or missing, has been destroyed, has been transferred to others, or has otherwise been disposed 26 of. The written statement should also identify the person who disposed of the DOCUMENT, 27 explain the circumstances and authorization for the disposition and the approximate date of the 28 disposition of the DOCUMENT. If there are no DOCUMENTS responsive to a document request,

1 as to each such document request, include a statement to that effect in the accompanying
2 declaration or affidavit.

3 7. DOCUMENTS provided in response to this subpoena should be complete and, unless
4 privileged, unredacted, submitted as found in your files (e.g., DOCUMENTS that in their original
5 condition were stapled, clipped, attached as a "post-it," or otherwise fastened together shall be 6 produced in equivalent form).

7 8. Identify each DOCUMENT produced pursuant to this subpoena according to the category
8 in the subpoena to which it is responsive. In lieu of indicating on each DOCUMENT the category
9 to which it is responsive, on the date set for production, you may instead provide an index of all
10 DOCUMENTS you produce, as long as this index shows by document control number the 11 request(s) to which each DOCUMENT or group of DOCUMENTS is responsive. Mark each page
12 of a paper DOCUMENT with consecutive document control numbers.

13 9. The document requests contained in this subpoena should be deemed to include a request
14 for all relevant DOCUMENTS in the personal files, including but not limited to files contained on 15 laptops, palm devices, home computers and home files of your officers, employees, accountants,
16 agents and representatives, and unless privileged, attorneys.

17 10. If any DOCUMENTS are withheld from production based on a claim of privilege, provide 18 a log under oath by the affiant or declarant, which includes each DOCUMENT's authors,
19 addressees, date, a description of each DOCUMENT, all recipients of the original, and any
20 copies, and the request(s) of this subpoena to which the DOCUMENT is responsive. Attachments
21 to a DOCUMENT should be identified as such and entered separately on the log. For each author,
22 addressee, and recipient, state the person's full name, title, and employer or firm, and denote all
23 attorneys with an asterisk. To the extent the claim of privilege relates to any employee, agent,
24 representative, or outside attorney, identify the person's name, division, and organization. In the 25 description of the DOCUMENT, provide sufficient information to identify its general subject
26 matter without revealing information over which a privilege is claimed. For each DOCUMENT
27 withheld under a claim that it constitutes or contains attorney work product, also state whether 28 you assert that the DOCUMENT was prepared in anticipation of litigation or for trial and, if so,

1 identify the anticipated litigation or trial on which the assertion is based. Submit all non-
2 privileged portions of any responsive DOCUMENT (including non-privileged or redactable
3 attachments) for which a claim of privilege is asserted (except where the only non-privileged 4 information has already been produced in response to this instruction), noting where redactions in
5 the DOCUMENT have been made. DOCUMENTS authored by outside lawyers representing you
6 that were not directly or indirectly furnished to you or any third-party, such as internal law firm
7 memoranda, may be omitted from the log.

8 11. All confidential business information (CBI) produced under this subpoena is subject to the 9 protections against disclosure in Government Code Section 11183. Clearly mark any
10 DOCUMENTS you consider to be CBI with an appropriate legend, such as "CONFIDENTIAL,"
11 "HIGHLY CONFIDENTIAL," or the like. You may not withhold non-privileged DOCUMENTS
12 on the basis that they constitute CBI.

RE: Notice to preserve all documents related to agreements with the U.S. Department of Interior to relinquish or cancel offshore wind leases

Dear Mr. Brown and Custodian of Records:

We represent the California Energy Commission (CEC) in connection with agreements between the U.S. Department of Interior and offshore wind energy developers, including Golden State Wind LLC, to relinquish or cancel offshore wind leases, including Lease OCS-P 0564, in exchange for payment from the federal government (the “Lease Buyouts”).

We are investigating potential violations of law in connection with the Lease Buyouts and anticipate potential litigation involving the federal government and parties to Lease Buyouts impacting California’s energy needs and offshore wind programs. The purpose of this letter is to ensure your awareness of anticipated potential litigation over the Lease Buyouts and provide information on the reasonable steps you must take to preserve and retain all hard copies and electronically stored information (“ESI”), as defined by Rule 34 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, relevant to that anticipated potential litigation.

Federal courts consistently hold that once a party reasonably anticipates litigation, it must take steps to preserve relevant evidence. “The obligation to preserve evidence arises when the party has notice that the evidence is relevant to litigation or when a party should have known that the evidence may be relevant to future litigation.” Apple Inc. v. Samsung Elecs. Co., 888 F. Supp. 2d 976, 990–91 (N.D. Cal. 2012) (quoting Zubulake v. UBS Warburg LLC, 220 F.R.D. 212, 216 (S.D.N.Y. 2003)). The preservation obligation arises not only during litigation but also extends to that prior period when future litigation is reasonably foreseeable, i.e., “[a]s soon as a potential claim is identified.” Id. at 991 (quoting In re Napster, Inc. Copyright Litig., 462 F. Supp. 2d 1060, 1067 (N.D. Cal. 2006)). “Once a party reasonably anticipates litigation, it must suspend its routine document retention/destruction policy and put in place a ‘litigation hold’ to ensure the preservation of relevant documents.” Apple, 888 F. Supp. 2d at 991 (quoting Zubulake, 220 F.R.D. at 218). “That litigation may require a party to deviate from its normal data ESI management protocols is not unusual Nor does a data management system that regularly overwrites information in the normal course of operation excuse a party from fulfilling their duty to preserve documents and information.” Al Otro Lado, Inc. v. Nielsen, 328 F.R.D. 408, 419 (S.D. Cal. 2018).

To fulfill your preservation obligation, you must take reasonable steps to preserve, intact and without modification, all hard copy documents and ESI (including metadata) relevant to the Lease Buyouts, including, but not limited to:

- Suspending document and data destruction policies;
- Retaining software, hardware, or other information required to access or view the ESI, such as:
 - identification codes;
 - passwords;
 - decryption applications;
 - decompression software;
 - reconstruction software;
 - network access codes;
 - manuals; and
 - user instructions
- Taking special action for archived or deleted ESI; and
- Taking any other reasonable steps necessary to prevent the destruction, loss, override, or modification of relevant data, either intentionally or inadvertently, such as through modification of your document retention policy and systems.

Potentially relevant ESI may include:

(a) active, archived, and deleted copies of ESI, such as emails, voicemails, text messages, instant or direct messages (DMs), ephemeral messages, calendars, diaries, word processing files, spreadsheets, PDFs, JPEGs, PowerPoint presentations, recordings of videoconferences or conference calls, database files, temporary internet files, cookies, .ZIP files, stored correspondence from workplace collaboration tools, among others; and

(b) the ESI’s metadata, including the date it was created, the date it was last modified, and the name of the individual who created it, whether stored online, offline, in a cloud-based server or in other electronic storage, or on any computers, handheld devices, tablets, cell phones, or other devices over which you have possession, custody, or control.

May 4, 2026

The documents requested in the administrative investigative subpoena issued by the California Energy Commission today must be covered by your preservation activities, but do not represent the outer bound of your preservation obligation. Rather, that obligation extends to all documents that may be relevant to the anticipated potential litigation over the Lease Buyouts.

In addition, your obligation to take reasonable steps to preserve all hard copy documents and ESI relevant to the Lease Buyouts extends to those documents that are not in your direct possession or custody, but are within your power to preserve. Notably, documents may be in the possession or custody of your parent companies, subsidiaries, affiliates, officers, directors, managers, or agents are all subject to your preservation obligation if they may be relevant to the Lease Buyouts.

Your failure to preserve relevant data may constitute spoliation of evidence, which may subject you to sanctions. We trust that you will preserve all relevant hard copy documents and ESI.

Please confirm in writing by May 8, 2026 that you have taken reasonable steps to preserve the materials described in this letter, including suspension of routine deletion or destruction practices for potentially relevant custodians and repositories. Please also identify a point of contact for preservation-related communications.

Thank you in advance for your cooperation.

Sincerely,
